Library FAQs

- When will you reopen the library fully? The cases of COVID-19 are rising steadily in Clark County. We will not return to a full operation until coronavirus is under control. The decision of when to re-open will be made by library director Lorelee Petersen and the Library Board of Trustees.
- What services do you offer now?
 - The Owen Express Library is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12-6:00pm. You can browse our new materials in the library entryway. Librarians are available to get other items from our shelves for you.
 - Interlibrary loan from within our library system is available again.
 - Seating has been added outdoors for reading and WiFi use. Newspapers can be taken from the entryway and read here.
 - Librarians can make copies and send faxes.
 - Masks and hand sanitizer are available for your safety while browsing our materials.

Sidewalk Chalk Celebration

Let's brighten up our town and our summer! Stop by the library August 17, 19 or 21 and pick up some sidewalk chalk. Make a fabulous work of art and post it on our Facebook page or send a picture to owen.wvls@gmail.com by August 31. Awards for most creative, best design, etc.
